I. EMPLOYMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICES

A. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

We have prepared this Personnel Policy Manual to help you understand some of the policies and procedures of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County (referred to herein as “Employer”). Employees are required to read the Manual and sign the Acknowledgement Of Receipt (AOR) on page 22. The AOR form is then given to the Office Administrator for placement in the employee’s file. Nothing in this Manual or in any other written or unwritten policies and practices of Employer creates an expressed or implied contract, promise or representation between Employer and any employee.

The Employer’s policies generally will be applied consistently. However, the Employer reserves the right to deviate from normal policy in certain situations. Since every employment situation cannot be anticipated, this Manual provides a general overview only.

From time to time, changes in the Manual may become necessary. Therefore, the Employer reserves the right to amend, supplement or rescind any provisions of this Manual as necessary.

The Manual applies to all staff, whether full-time, part-time, exempt or nonexempt (see II. A., page 12), except where otherwise stated. This Manual does not apply to ordained Ministers called by vote of the congregation. Employment “at-will” means that an employee or the Employer may terminate the employment relationship at any time for any reason, with or without notice. Both parties will make a good faith effort to give at least a two-week notice.

This Manual supersedes all previous employment policies, whether written or oral, expressed or implied. If any provisions of this Manual are found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

If you have any questions or comments about this Manual, or if you need more information, please ask the Chair of the Personnel Committee, or the minister. Your comments and suggestions are genuinely encouraged.

B. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The UUCSC affirms its commitment to equal employment opportunity for all individuals. Decisions about recruiting, hiring, training, promotions, compensation, benefits, and any similar employment decisions must be made in compliance with all federal, state and local laws and without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other classification protected by law. Any discrimination in the workplace based upon any protected classification is illegal and against policy.

Employees who have questions about discrimination in the workplace, or who believe this policy has been violated, should report their concerns immediately to the Minister. Retaliation against individuals who make a claim of discrimination or participate in the investigation of such a claim is prohibited by this policy and will not be tolerated.

C. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment is prohibited and will not be tolerated. This policy applies to sexual harassment by members of the same gender as well as opposite genders. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

- Submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a factor in employment decisions affecting an individual; or
- The conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's employment or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment environment.

Some examples of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment, depending on the circumstances, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Repeated and unwelcome suggestions regarding, or invitations to, social engagements or social events; or
- Any indication, expressed or implied, that any aspect of employment conditions, depends or may depend on the granting of sexual favors or on a willingness to accept or tolerate conduct or communication of a sexual nature; or
- Unwelcome or coerced physical proximity or physical contact which is of a sexual nature or sexually motivated; or
- The deliberate use of offensive or demeaning terms which have a sexual connotation; or
- Inappropriate remarks of a sexual nature.

Any employee who believes he or she has been sexually harassed by another employee, a supervisor, or any other person encountered in the course of employment should report that conduct immediately to his or her supervisor or to the Minister. If the report or complaint involves the supervisor or the Minister, or if the Minister is unavailable, the individual receiving the report or complaint should immediately report it to the chair of the Personnel Committee.

Every complaint or report of sexual harassment will be investigated promptly. Although investigations will be conducted with sensitivity to confidentiality issues, investigative information will be communicated as appropriate to those with a need to know. If the investigation indicates that a violation of this policy may have occurred, timely and appropriate action will be taken.

Retaliation or reprisal against employees who report sexual harassment claims is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Any violation of this policy will be treated as a serious matter and will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. (See UUCSC Policy Regarding Disruptive Behavior in Section VIII.)

D. HARASSMENT

The Employer prohibits conduct that shows hostility or an aversion toward an individual because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other classification protected by law, and that:

- Has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; or
- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or
- Otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Some examples of conduct that may constitute harassment, depending on the circumstances, include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Epithets or slurs; or
- Threatening or intimidating acts; or
- Inappropriate written or graphic material; or
- Written, verbal or physical acts that purport to be inappropriate jokes or pranks.

Any employee who believes he or she has been harassed by another employee, a supervisor, an agent of Employer, or any other person whom the employee encounters in the course of employment should report that conduct immediately to his or her supervisor or the Minister. If the report or complaint involves the Minister, or if the Minister is unavailable, the individual receiving the report or complaint should immediately report it to the chair of the Personnel Committee.

Every complaint or report of harassment will be investigated promptly. If the investigation indicates that an act of harassment has occurred, timely and appropriate action will be taken. Retaliation or reprisal against employees who report harassment claims is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Any violation of this policy will be treated as a serious matter and will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination. (See UUCSC Policy Regarding Disruptive Behavior in Section VIII.)

E. RESOLUTION OF EMPLOYEE COMPLAINTS

Effective communication is essential for productive working relationships. To that end, employees are encouraged to discuss any concerns about work or suggestions for improving operations in the following manner:

- The employee should present any complaint or grievance to his or her supervisor and together discuss the problem, applicable rules or policies, and possible resolution.
- If discussion with the supervisor does not resolve the matter to the employee's satisfaction, the employee should submit the complaint or grievance in writing to the Minister.
- If discussion with the Minister does not resolve the matter to the employee's satisfaction, the employee should submit the complaint or grievance in writing to the Personnel Committee, which will gather the evidence necessary to complete an investigation and /or hold a hearing. The Personnel Committee shall then recommend a resolution of the problem. If the Minister is the supervisor, unresolved grievances should be directed to the Personnel Committee.
- If the Personnel Committee's recommendation does not resolve the matter to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may then seek a review by the Board. The resolution recommended by the Board will be binding upon all parties involved in the grievance.

F. INTERNET POLICY

When employer provides Internet access (including e-mail) to its staff members, it is to assist and facilitate business communications and work-related research. These services are for legitimate business use only in the course of assigned duties. All materials, information and software created, transmitted, downloaded or stored on the Employer's computer system are the property of the Employer, and may be accessed only by authorized personnel.

Inappropriate Internet use includes, but is not limited to, intentionally:

- Transmitting obscene, harassing, offensive or unprofessional messages; or

- Accessing, displaying downloading or distributing any offensive or inappropriate messages, including those containing racial slurs, sexual connotations or offensive comments about race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other classification protected by law.
- Intentionally transmitting any of the Employer's confidential or proprietary information, including member/friend data or other materials covered by the Employer's confidentiality.

Employer reserves the right to monitor employee use of the e-mail system or the Internet at any time. Employees should not consider their Internet usage or e-mail communications to be private. Personal passwords are not an assurance of confidentiality, and the Internet itself is not secure.

Any software or other material downloaded into Employer's computers may be used only in ways consistent with the licenses and copyrights of the vendors, authors or owners of the material. Prior written authorization from the Minister is required before introducing any software into Employer's computer system.

Only authorized staff members may communicate on the Internet on behalf of Employer. Employees may not express opinions or personal views that could be misconstrued as being those of Employer. Employees may not state their UUCSC affiliation on the Internet, without prior Board approval, unless required as part of their assigned duties. Any violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

G. MEDIA INQUIRIES

All requests for information about the Employer from newspapers, television and radio media should be directed to the Minister and/or President. An appropriate response to a media inquiry would be, "I'm not the best person to answer that question. May I contact the appropriate person and have that individual get back to you?"

H. CONFIDENTIALITY

Employees may, in the course of their duties, have access to confidential information about the Employer, including but not limited to, information about members, friends or other staff members. Such information must remain confidential and may not be released, removed from the Employer's premises, copied, transmitted or in any other way used for any purpose by employees outside the scope of their employment. All requests for information concerning past or present employees received from organizations or individuals should be directed to the Minister.

I. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Employees are expected to avoid conflicts of interest, defined as any situation where an employee may attain personal gain or which may serve as a detriment to the Employer, either monetarily or to its public image, because of the use of information or personal contact which is not generally available except through employment with the Employers.

Employees shall not engage in any business or transaction, and shall not have a financial or other personal interest, which is incompatible with their employment duties or which would impair their judgment or actions in the performance of their duties for the Employer. Employees who have questions about whether an activity violates this policy should discuss the matter with the Minister.

J. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees shall not engage in any collateral employment or business activity that is incompatible or in conflict with their duties, functions or responsibilities as an employee. Activities that may constitute a conflict include use of the Employer's time, facilities, equipment or supplies, or the use of the title, prestige, or influence of the congregation for private gain or advantage.

An employee shall not engage in any outside activity which, by its nature, hours or physical demands, would impair the employee's performance of Employer duties; reflect discredit on the Employer; or tend to increase Employer's payments for sick leave, worker's compensation benefits or long term disability benefits. Collateral employment should not result in excessive outside telephone calls while on duty for the congregation.

Outside employment will not be considered an excuse for poor job performance, absenteeism, tardiness, leaving early, refusal to travel, or work different hours. If outside employment contributes to any of these situations, normal disciplinary procedures will be followed, up to and including termination.

K. EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES AND MEMBERS

Other members of an employees' family may be considered for employment; however, relatives may not supervise one another. "Relative" means: spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, grandparent or grandchild.

The UUA recommends and it is the preferred policy of the UUCSC to hire outside the congregation, unless there are extraordinary circumstances.

L. PERSONNEL RECORD

It is very important that employees keep up-to-date all the information provided to the Employer at the time of hire. This information is essential for many purposes, including benefit administration, mailing information to the employee's home, and contacting friends or family in case of emergency. The Minister should be promptly notified of any changes in:

- Address and telephone number;
- Marital status (including legal separation);
- Legal change in employee's name;
- Dependents;
- Changes in beneficiaries;
- Person to notify in case of emergency; and
- Any relevant changes in licensing or education.

Access to Personnel Records

The UUCSC maintains a personnel file for each employee. These files are the property of the UUCSC. Files may include, but are not limited to: resumes, cover letters, reference information, evaluations, contracts, background checks, signed AOR forms, and any record of disciplinary action. Access to these files is restricted. Generally, only supervisors and those who have a legitimate reason to review the employee's records shall have access. The Personnel Committee must approve requests for access to a personnel file. Personnel files may be reviewed only in the UUCSC office under supervision of a member of the Personnel Committee or the employee's supervisor. Employees who wish to review their own personnel files should contact their supervisor, the Minister, or the Chair of the Personnel Committee. With reasonable advance notice, employees may then review their own personnel file.

M. INITIAL REVIEW PERIOD

New employees and employees who are transferred to another position are required to complete an initial review period of ninety days, which may be shortened or lengthened at the Employer's discretion. Upon completion of this period, the employee will be considered a regular employee. Satisfactory completion of the initial review period does not alter the employment-at-will relationship (see I. A., page 4, paragraph 4). Employees must continue to perform satisfactorily even after the initial review period is completed. Although regular employees typically work on an ongoing basis, there is no guarantee that any job position will continue indefinitely. Any position may be eliminated at any time at the discretion of the Employer.

N. ANNUAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Employees are evaluated annually with two written performance evaluations. Each employee will write his or her own performance evaluation. The employee's supervisor will write a separate performance evaluation. Both evaluations will be completed by March 15, and signed by March 21. Both evaluations will be maintained in the Employee's permanent personnel file. Factors considered in assessing performance include, but are not limited to: job description, annual goals, quality and quantity of work and duties as directed by the supervisor; dependability; attendance and punctuality; effective interpersonal relationships with the congregation, and personal conduct. Refer to the relevant Committee Handbook for more information on the evaluation process (Table of Contents, IX).

Employees report to the following supervisor: Sexton—Office Administrator; Assistant Office Administrator—Office Administrator; Office Administrator—Minister; Director of Religious Education—Minister; Director of Music—Minister.

In collaboration with their respective supervisor, employees are requested to identify goals and objectives prior to the beginning of the evaluation period, so that their work may be evaluated on the basis of clear criteria they have helped to develop.

The evaluation process is as follows: In March, the supervisor, and employee each write their own employee evaluation, completed by March 15. If the supervisor and employee agree on the evaluation by signing their names with no objections by March 21, the supervisor places the 2 performance evaluations in the employee's personnel file, and notifies the Board and Personnel Committee seven (7) days before the April Board meeting. The supervisor advises the Personnel Committee to proceed with preparation of a new contract.

In the event of any unresolved issues, such as the employee signing any of the evaluations with objections, the parties have until the May Board meeting to resolve them. Unresolved issues should be directed to the Personnel Committee. The Personnel Committee will gather the evidence necessary to complete an investigation and/or hold a hearing. The Personnel Committee shall then recommend a resolution of the issues. If the Personnel Committee's recommendation does not resolve the issue(s) to either party's satisfaction, the dissatisfied party may then seek a review by the Board. The resolution recommended by the Board shall be binding on all parties. A contract for the next fiscal year is offered only after a satisfactory resolution of the outstanding issue(s).

II. WAGE AND HOUR ADMINISTRATION

A. EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATIONS

For purposes of determining the applicability of various policies, practices, and benefits, employees are classified by the nature of the position to which they are assigned and by their regular work schedule.

Employees who are subject to state or federal minimum wage and overtime laws are referred to as "non-exempt" employees. Those in administrative, management, or supervisory positions who are not subject to such regulation are referred to as "exempt" employees. The Director of Religious Education and the Music Director are "exempt" employees.

B. HOURS OF WORK

Employees' hours are stipulated in their job descriptions. Individual work schedules may change from time to time.

Attendance at meetings at the request of the employee's supervisor or as stipulated in the employee's job description will be considered time worked. Employees are expected to attend any staff retreats or off-site events, which are part of their employment.

C. TIMEKEEPING AND OVERTIME

Non-exempt employees must submit a written and signed record of their time worked at the end of each day. Any scheduled hours not worked or time worked in excess of their regular schedule must be noted. Where required by applicable law, overtime will be paid to non-exempt employees at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty in any one work week. Holiday, vacation and sick leave are not counted for purposes of overtime compensation. Non-exempt employees should not work overtime without authorization in advance.

D. PAY AND PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Pay adjustments generally will be considered for all employees once per year, and any adjustments will be made upon adoption of the current year budget. There is no guarantee of an annual pay adjustment. Pay is usually based upon budget allocations. Employees are generally paid once a month.

The Finance Committee will report to each employee deductions made from the employee's wages. Federal law requires deductions from pay for income tax, Social Security and Medicare. Other deductions may include state and/or local taxes or wage garnishments. Some deductions are optional and are made only if the employee has authorized their deduction.

Employees are responsible for promptly notifying the Treasurer of any changes to or errors in their deductions. Any necessary adjustments are usually made and reflected in the employee's next paycheck.

III. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Employee benefits are delineated in each employee's contract and the Minister's letter of agreement. The following benefits will apply to all employees.

A. MILITARY LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

Employees who are members of the uniformed services of the United States (including the National Guard or other reserve unit) will be granted unpaid leaves of absence in accordance with state or federal law to perform military duties on a voluntary or involuntary basis. Requests for military leave of absence must be made in writing and should include verification of the duty call from military authority, the date the leave is to commence, and the expected date of return.

In accordance with applicable law, eligible employees will be reinstated to the same or equivalent job upon return from an authorized military leave of absence.

B. JURY DUTY LEAVE WITH PAY

Employees called for jury duty are paid their regular pay for up to twenty (20) working days, minus court payment.

Employees should appear for work upon being excused from jury duty on any day.

C. EXPENSES AND REIMBURSEMENT

1. Congregation and Job-Related Expenses

Employees should submit requests for payment of anticipated expenses for the coming fiscal year to the supervisor and then to the Board for approval prior to the Annual Budget Approval by the Congregation. Examples include professional dues, association fees, workshops, or related costs. Employees should submit requests for reimbursement and documentation of unanticipated expenses (e.g., photocopies) to the supervisor as soon as possible, but prior to the end of the fiscal year in which they are incurred.

2. Vehicle Use and Reimbursement

UUCSC does not reimburse employees using their own cars for UUCSC-related business. However, staff members are encouraged to track their mileage while conducting church business: a) for their own tax returns; and b) to enable the Finance Committee to budget for possible mileage reimbursement in the future.

Employees must have a current and valid driver's license and proof of insurance as required by the State of Rhode Island. Employees may not take unauthorized passengers on such trips. The UUCSC is not liable for any personal injury or property/vehicle damage incurred by the employee. All tickets for parking and traffic violations are the responsibility of the employee. The employee must pay all fines promptly and will not be reimbursed by the UUCSC.

3. Credit

The lead administrative officer, the Office Administrator, or the Chair of the Finance Committee must approve use of the UUCSC credit card(s).

IV. OTHER EMPLOYEE POLICIES

A. ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

Each employee is expected to be prompt and regular in his/her attendance at work. Personal appointments should be scheduled before or after work hours, if possible. The supervisor must approve all scheduled absences in advance. Employees who are unable to report to work at their scheduled time must call their supervisor as soon as possible to report the absence and the expected time of return to work. Employees must call in each day they are absent, unless otherwise authorized by their supervisor.

The supervisor must approve the employee's unscheduled absences (such as returning late from lunch or leaving work before the end of the workday). If the employee expects to be absent the following day, he/she should inform the supervisor of that fact at the same time.

Excessive absenteeism without adequate notice or explanation may result in disciplinary action.

Employees must notify their supervisor before their starting time if they are ill and unable to come to work. Employees may be required to provide a physician's statement regarding their medical condition, including why the employee was not able to work.

B. WORK AND DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES

Certain guidelines must be observed by all employees to protect the integrity of the congregation. Violations may result in disciplinary measures, including verbal warnings, written warnings or termination.

Engaging in any of the following examples of unacceptable conduct may result in disciplinary actions. These examples are intended only as a guide and are not all-inclusive.

- Failure to perform work in a manner acceptable to Employer;
- Excessive absenteeism or tardiness;
- Leaving work without permission;
- Failure to report absences as required;
- Sexual harassment or harassment described in this Manual;
- The use, possession or sale, or being under the influence, of alcohol or controlled substances (other than those used for bona fide medical purposes) while working or while on Employer premises (including meal and other breaks);
- Disclosure of confidential information;
- Smoking in unauthorized areas;
- Failure to report on-the-job injuries;
- Working another job while on approved absence;
- Arrest and conviction for criminal offenses, including those that may affect the employee's ability to perform his/her job;
- Falsifying records or any UUCSC record or report, such as an application for employment or timecard, or information, or misuse or unauthorized manipulation of any computer or electronic data processing equipment or system.

- Discourteous treatment of others.
- Insubordination – refusal to follow management’s instructions concerning a job-related matter, or lack of responsiveness to supervision;
- Assault on a co-worker;
- Gambling on UUCSC property;
- Possession of fire arms or other weapons on UUCSC property;
- Theft or misuse of UUCSC property or of another employee’s property;
- Taking employer property without paying for it or without written permission.
- Reckless, careless or unauthorized use of Employer property, equipment or materials.
- Improper or profane language.
- Violation of any other Employer policy.

1. Property Damage

An employee who damages UUCSC property will be subject to appropriate action, which could include, but is not limited to, disciplinary action, discharge and/or reduction of wages for restitution of damages, and legal prosecution.

2. Disciplinary Procedure

All matters of employee performance will be handled in a progressive process designed to improve the employee’s performance in a fair and equitable manner.

Step 1 – Supervisor issues a Verbal warning that outlines the problem with corrective action. Corrective action required within 14 days.

Step 2 – Supervisor issues a Written warning that details the recurrence of the problem with written corrective action; that action required within 14 days.

Step 3 –Board issues a Termination notice as a result of no corrective action being taken by employee.

C. SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

It is the UUCSC’s policy to terminate employment because of an employee’s resignation, discharge for cause, retirement, permanent reduction in the workforce, employee misconduct, unsatisfactory job performance, or any other reason. In the absence of a specific written agreement, employees are free to resign at any time with proper notice, and the UUCSC reserves the right to terminate employment for any reason.

Employees can be terminated immediately and without recourse for the following infractions:

- Gross misconduct/disruptive behavior (see section VIII.)
- Theft
- Verbal/physical abuse
- Sexual harassment (after investigation)

Employees may be terminated by the UUCSC Board of Directors when, after receiving discipline from the supervisor, they are unwilling or unable to bring about the needed change in conduct, attitude or job performance.

Employees who resign are requested to give at least two weeks' written notice in order to find a suitable replacement.

D. SAFETY AND ACCIDENTS

1. Physical Safety

The safety of employees, as well as members and visitors, is of paramount concern. All employees are expected to abide by accepted safety standards at all times. They should know the whereabouts of fire extinguishers and the first aid kit.

Any unsafe condition, equipment or practice observed by an employee should be reported immediately to the supervisor or Minister. All on-the-job accidents or injuries to employees, no matter how minor, should be reported immediately to the supervisor or the Minister. In the event of a fire or other emergency, the fire department and/or police should be called immediately, and all staff and members of the congregation should leave the premises.

2. Safe Congregation

UUCSC employees, volunteers, and visitors are expected to abide by the UU/UUCSC Safe Congregation policies. (See Safe Congregation Policy in section VIII.) Violations may result in employee termination or congregational action.

E. PERSONAL PROPERTY

The Employer cannot be responsible for damage to or loss of personal property, including loss or damage to vehicles or other property in or on UUCSC property. Employees should report any lost items to the Minister so that the item can be returned if it is found. If an employee finds an item, it should be turned in to the Office Administrator.

F. WORKPLACE THREATS AND VIOLENCE

Threats, threatening behavior, or acts of violence against persons by anyone on UUCSC property will not be tolerated.

Anyone who verbally or physically threatens another, exhibits threatening behavior or engages in violent acts on UUCSC property may be removed, and will remain off UUCSC property pending the outcome of an investigation. If the Employer determines that a violation of this policy has occurred, the Employer may take appropriate disciplinary action that may include, but is not limited to, suspension and/or termination of employment, and/or legal action as appropriate.

All employees shall inform the Minister or their supervisor of any employee behavior that they have witnessed or experienced, that they regard as threatening or violent, when that behavior is job-related or is connected to employment.

G. PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

Employees should maintain a professional attitude and appearance that is appropriate to their position and the Employer-congregation. Name badges should be worn when employees are on duty on Sunday. Personal mail and non-essential telephone calls at work are discouraged.

The work environment should reflect a high degree of professionalism, and under no circumstances are items of apparel considered to be inappropriate to the job allowed in the workplace. Examples include revealing or tight clothing, graphics with explicit or derogatory wording, or that advocate inappropriate behavior.

1. Personal Finances

All employees are expected to discharge their financial obligations promptly so that creditors will not have to ask the UUCSC's assistance in collecting amounts owed to them. In the event that garnishment or similar proceedings are instituted against an employee, the UUCSC will deduct the required amount from the employee's paycheck. The amount so deducted will not exceed that permitted by law. No employee will be terminated by reason of the fact that his/her earnings have been subject to garnishment for one's indebtedness. However, an employee whose earnings are subject to repeated garnishments could be liable for disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

H. INSPECTION RIGHTS

The UUCSC has storage facilities such as desks, file cabinets, closets and storage areas for the use of employees on its premises; however, the UUCSC can make no assurances that they will always be secure. The storage or use of any unauthorized alcohol, illegal drugs or drug-related paraphernalia is prohibited on UUCSC premises. Therefore, the Employer reserves the right to open and inspect any desk, file cabinet, storage closet or storage area at any time and without prior notice or consent. Employees may not use personal locks on UUCSC-owned desks, cabinets, closets or storage areas. All authorized keys and locks will be maintained in the UUCSC office (central location); and may be duplicated only with authorization.

I. EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION

Federal law requires that prospective employees must show proof of eligibility to work in the United States in the position for which they are applying. When applicable, employees must usually provide an original document or documents to the supervisor, which establish identity and employment eligibility for the date employment begins.

J. RECRUITMENT AND HIRING

1. Hiring Policy

It is UUCSC policy to hire individuals who are qualified or trainable for employment as determined by our standards of education, experience, aptitude and character. All decisions regarding the recruitment, selection and placement of employees are made solely on the basis of job-related criteria. Every effort will be made to hire new employees for positions which best utilize their abilities and in which they will be able to achieve both personal satisfaction and opportunity for growth. In no event shall a hiring of an employee be considered as creating a contractual relationship between the employee and the UUCSC; see “At Will Statement” section I. A., page 4, paragraph 4.

The UUA recommends and it is the preferred policy of the UUCSC to hire outside the congregation, unless there are extraordinary circumstances.

2. Recruitment and Hiring Process

Appropriate committees and relevant individuals will bear responsibility for the recruitment and hiring process, adhering to EEO standards; see section I. B.

Search Procedure

When a Search Committee is charged with hiring a new employee, the committee will consist of at least six members. The committee will include a member of the Personnel Committee, a member of the Board, the Minister, a member of the staff with a formal relationship to the new position, and any other UUCSC member with job-related expertise. The committee will use the Staff Search Committee Handbook.

The Search Committee will hold an organizational meeting. A timeline for the hiring of the new employee will be determined, a help wanted ad will be written and advertised in area media such as one or more of the following: South County Independent, the Brown University non-profit web-site, Craig's List, Patch.

Application Requirements

A complete application will include a cover letter and a resume.

Selection and Interview Procedure

Each unsuccessful applicant will receive a letter of regret (see sample letters: Section VII. pp. 30, 31) from the Search Committee Chairperson. The finalist will receive a letter from the Chair (Section VII. p. 33), and a phone call from the Minister. All applications received will be kept in the Personnel Filing Cabinet for three years before being shredded.

Hiring Procedure

The Minister will offer the position via phone and the Personnel Committee Chair will offer it in writing (Employment Offer Letter VII. p. 29) contingent upon an acceptable background check.

The contract will be written by the Personnel Committee and then signed by the President of the Congregation and the new employee. Orientation (Employee Orientation Procedure VII. p. 32) will include providing a copy of the relevant Committee/Staff Handbook and a copy of this manual to the new employee, who will sign the ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT on page 22.

Please Note: New employees and employees who are transferred to another position are required to complete an initial review period of ninety days which may be shortened or lengthened at the Employer's discretion. (Section I. M. p. 10)

3. Minimal Safety Standards

A Background Criminal Investigation (BCI) is required for all UUCSC employees, Youth Advisors, Owl Trainers/Facilitators, Mentors, and youth-related volunteers. If the BCI shows a criminal record, the Minister with either the President or the DRE (if appropriate) will meet privately with the applicant to discuss the results. On a case basis, the UUCSC reserves the right to withdraw its offer of employment. All personal information will be kept confidential.

4. Promotions and Transfers

Whenever possible, employees will be given preference in filling vacancies based on their past performance evaluations and the qualifications necessary to fulfill the requirements of the position.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT of RECEIPT

I, _____, hereby acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County Personnel Policy Manual. I understand that it is my responsibility to read the Manual and to comply with the policies, practices and rules of the Employer.

I specifically understand and agree that my employment is at will and for an unspecified period of time, and that either the Employer or I may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without reason and with or without notice. Both parties will make a good faith effort to give at least a two-week notice. I specifically understand and agree that this statement of policy contains all the terms relating to employment, and that no representations may be made contrary to the foregoing, either expressed or implied. I understand that this statement of policy is not subject to change.

I understand that this Manual supersedes all previous policies, written or oral, expressed or implied. I also understand that this Manual is neither a contract of employment nor a legal document, and that the Employer reserves discretion to add, change or rescind any policy, practice or rule at any time, with or without notice. It is understood that any change will be communicated through the usual channels and will become effective immediately.

I understand that my signature below indicates that I have read, understood, and will comply with the above statements, and have received a copy of the _____(current year) Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County Personnel Policy Manual.

VII. FORMS

Interview Process/Questions

Chair of committee welcomes the interviewee and introduces self and members of the committee. The Chair then reviews the job duties and employment particulars, e.g., part-time/full-time, 10-month position with option for renewal, and the background check requirement.

To determine the best-qualified person for the position, the search committee will have prepared direct questions concerning the applicant's resume as well as questions not addressed on the resume.

These direct questions will be followed by non-directed questions that the interviewee answers without further intervention from the committee member asking the questions. This will help the committee to assess the ability of the interviewee to organize his/her thoughts. Sample questions:

- a. Why did you apply for this position? Why part-time/full-time?
- b. Confidentiality is very important. How would you deflect a question that would involve confidentiality?
- c. Tell us about a challenging employment situation and how you handled it?
- d. What employment experiences have you had that would help you be a successful _____?
- e. Tell us about yourself; hobbies, talents or other things that are important in your life.
- f. A light bulb needs to be changed or the bathroom needs more toilet paper. These tasks are not in your job description. Would you be willing to do these tasks if they need to be done or would you call the Facilities Committee Chair?
- g. Do you have any questions about this position, or the UUCSC and its policies?

To close the interview, tell the applicant when he/she can expect to get feedback about the selection decision.

- *All Background checks, code of ethics and license checks will be kept on file in the office (locked). The minister and DRE will have the keys.

UUCSC Policy Regarding Disruptive Behavior

Conflict will occur in the normal course of events in any committed community such as this congregation. This congregation has established procedures to use in the event of conflict arising between individuals and/or groups within the congregation. This policy is designed for behavior, which is seriously dangerous, disruptive or offensive to members, friends, and potential members of the Congregation.

The UUCSC welcomes EVERYONE to its community. High among our congregation's values are: respect for an individual's worth and dignity, acceptance and expression of unique theologies and life perspectives, support of fair and reasonable practices through democratic methods, and the creation of a safe and nurturing community. We affirm the belief that our congregation must maintain this secure spiritual environment, and thereby institute this policy to address disruptive behaviors that threaten or compromise the congregations' physical and/or emotional well being.

Such situations may include, but are not limited to:

1. Perceived threats to the safety of any adult or child;
2. The disruption of congregational activities;
3. Communication to members intended to misrepresent, deceive, cause confusion, or undermine truth or harmony in the UUCSC; and
4. Diminishment of the appeal of the Congregation to its potential and existing membership.

The following shall be the policy of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County in dealing with the issues above, or others of similar ilk. Every case will be carefully considered and addressed firmly and promptly.

For Disruptive Behavior of Unknown Origin

In accordance with our denomination's principle for a free and responsible search for meaning, we encourage open and honest communication, mutual support, and compassion for those within our midst and all others. Anonymous communications are not in keeping with the spirit of this congregation, are inappropriate, and will not be responded to.

The congregation affirms that the safety and well-being of the congregation must be given priority over the privileges of the individual.

If the person(s) responsible for disruptive behavior does so anonymously, and with a threat of violence, the appropriate law enforcement agency will be contacted immediately.

If there is illegal action, yet no threat of violence, one "best" attempt to request the disrupter to come forward and resolve the conflict/concern in a forthright and safe manner will be made by the Minister. The perpetrator will be informed that the next step will be to report the illegal actions to the appropriate law enforcement agency. If within one weeks' time, the person does not reveal himself or herself, then legal action will commence.

For Disruptive Behavior of Known Origin

If an immediate response to disruptive behavior is required, this will be undertaken by the Minister, if available, and/or the leader of the group involved, e.g. Board President/Committee Chair/RE Director/Music Director, etc.

This may include drawing the disruptive person(s) aside and stating that the behavior is not acceptable and to please stop, asking the offending person or persons to leave, or suspending the meeting or activity until such a time as it can safely be resumed. If further assistance is required the Police Department may be called.

Anytime any of these actions are undertaken without the Minister or Board President being present, they both must be notified.

If deemed necessary by the Minister or group leader, an ad hoc committee of three or more people (appointed by the Board of Directors) will convene around this incident.

A follow-up letter detailing what steps must be taken before returning to the activities involved will be drawn up by the appropriate Leader and approved by the Committee. The letter should state that if the individual chooses to do so he/she can request that the ad hoc committee mediate the dispute. The individual needs to state the problem to the Committee in writing. Copies of the letter to the disruptive party are to be sent to the Minister, Congregation President, and Committee.

Situations not requiring an immediate response will be referred to the ad hoc committee appointed by the Board of Directors. The Committee will respond in terms of their own judgment, observing the following:

- A. The Committee will respond to problems as they arise. There will be no attempt to define "acceptable" behavior in advance.
- B. Persons identified as disruptive will be dealt with as individuals; stereotypes will be avoided.
- C. The Committee will collect all necessary information, speaking with all relevant parties if deemed safe to do so.
- D. To aid in evaluating the problem, the following points will be considered:
 - DANGER - Is the individual the source of a threat or perceived threat to persons or property?
 - DISRUPTIVENESS - How much interference with Congregational functions is going on?
 - OFFENSIVENESS - How likely is it that prospective or existing members will be driven away?
- E. To determine the necessary response, the following points will be considered:
 - CAUSES - Why is the disruption occurring? Is it a conflict between the individual and others in the Congregation? Is it due to a professionally diagnosed condition of mental illness?
 - HISTORY - What has been the frequency and degree of disruption caused in the past?
 - PROBABILITY OF CHANGE - How likely is it that the problem behavior will diminish in the future?
- F. The Committee will decide on the necessary response on a case-by-case basis. However, the following four levels of response are recommended:

LEVEL ONE- The committee may decide that no action is warranted. In that event, the minister and the Board should be informed.

LEVEL TWO - The Committee shall inform the Minister of the problem and the Minister and/or member of the committee shall meet with the offending individual to communicate the concern.

LEVEL THREE – After making reasonable attempts to secure appropriate behavior; the disruptive person remains noncommittal, the offending individual is excluded from the Congregation and/or specific activities for a limited period of time, with reasons and the conditions of return made clear.

LEVEL FOUR – If after making all reasonable attempts to secure appropriate behavior, and the disruptive person refuses to comply; the offending individual is permanently excluded from the premises and all UUCSC activities. Before this is carried out, the Committee will consult with the Board of Directors and the Minister. If it is decided that expulsion will take place, a letter will be sent by the Minister and Board explaining the expulsion and the individual's rights and possible recourse.

G. For any behavior judged to need a Level 2, 3 or 4 response, contact the District Executive. Depending on the nature of the behavior, it may also be appropriate to involve professionals in other fields: e.g. mental health workers, social service agencies, or the police.

H. Any action taken under item F. (above) may be appealed to the Board of Directors and/or the Minister.

I. If, in time, the person reconsiders and wishes to reenter the group, he/she may meet with the leadership of the congregation to request reentry, subject to Board approval.

Note: Regarding rights of individuals who feel threatened by behavior of other individuals: No heretofore stated policy of the Congregation applies to an individual, on the premises, who feels threatened and calls the police on his/her own behalf.

X. UUCSC STAFF EVALUATION PROCESS

The evaluation process involves the following three components:

Program Evaluation

The staff member and the appropriate committee will engage in a review of how well program goals are met. This evaluation will be shared with the minister.

Program goals:

- are established by the appropriate committee in consultation with the staff member associated with the program.
- are written in September of the program year. The Personnel Committee will ensure that this process occurs.

The year-end evaluation will:

- assess how well the program achieved the goals.
- assess how well the appropriate committee, staff, and congregation collaborated to achieve the goals
- reflect on how the program is being received in the congregation.

Committee chairs will submit their evaluations to the Board and notify the Personnel Committee.

Staff Self-Evaluation

Each staff member will:

- evaluate their contributions to the goals associated with their program
- evaluate their success in meeting their personal professional goals
- reflect on the following questions:
 - Does the job description accurately describe the job you perform?
 - What did you bring to your job this year that best served the congregation?
 - What do you think is the most under appreciated part of your job?
 - What aspects of your job and/or your job performance would you like to work on in the future?
 - What aspect of your work this year are you most proud of?
 - What professional activities have you been involved in this year?

Supervisory Evaluation

The staff member's supervisor will:

- meet with the staff person to discuss and review the program evaluations and staff self-evaluations
- write an overall performance appraisal assessing;
 - the extent to which the staff person met the requirements of the job description
 - the extent to which the staff achieved their professional goals for the year
 - the staff person's skill at communication, collaboration, and commitment to UUCSC's mission.

The final steps of the employee evaluation process are as follows:

The supervisor will meet with staff members to discuss their evaluations.

- The supervisor and the staff member will sign their evaluations to acknowledge that the evaluation process did occur.
- Evaluations will be filed and confidentiality maintained in the UUCSC staff members personnel files.
