From David Floyd: "Proceeds after expenses and room rental were $550." (Not sure exactly what this all means..JR)

November 4, 2017, 7 p.m.: Rose Weaver, "Menopause Mama".

We paid Rose $800; we got an anonymous donation of $500 toward the production. She had gotten a RISCA grant, so that she could charge us half-fee. We had 93 people there; we took in $1400 (at $15 a person and few volunteers gratis). So we cleared approximately $600.

January 28, 2018, 2 p.m.: Nancy Hood and Barry Brown, "I've Got a Song," A Living History of the McCarthy Era. We had 50+ people. We took in $740; we paid them $600; we cleared just $140.

February 25, 2018, 2 p.m.: Two Mandolin Ensembles from NYC; we split the door and cleared approximately $780.

March 24, 2018, 7 p.m.: Bill Harley with Marty Ballou and Rachel Panitch. We paid them 65% of the door, which was $1635 (we had approx. 120 people there). We paid them $1062.75. We paid Rick McKinney $100. So we cleared $472.25

SO FAR: average of $498 per concert.

April 28, 2018, 7 p.m.: The Gnomes LIVE
Got 50 Brickley's ice cream coupons donated, plus 45 hats from Green Line Apothecary to transform into Gnome Hats. Jonathan Garber on sound ($100) Paid the band $500.
I made food for the band, but there some minor expenses for supplies and refreshments. We cleared just $200.

May 12, 7 p.m.: Magnolia Cajun Band, $850, with lesson at the beginning. Rick McKinney on sound ($100). Hopefully dancers will come out for this. It will be on all dance websites.
