

Staff Search Committee Handbook

UUCSC

The purpose of this handbook is to help the Search Committee responsible for hiring staff carry out their duties following the protocols specified in the UUCSC Personnel Policy Manual approved by the UUCSC Board. The following protocols for hiring staff have been copied from the UUCSC Personnel Policy Manual.

The Search Committee is directed to follow the UUCSC Personnel Policy Manual protocols and to use all the forms specified.

Thank you for reviewing and following these guidelines and procedures. May your committee accomplish its work in a loving, open and joyous spirit.

J. RECRUITMENT AND HIRING

1. Hiring Policy

It is UUCSC policy to hire individuals who are qualified or trainable for employment as determined by our standards of education, experience, aptitude and character. All decisions regarding the recruitment, selection and placement of employees are made solely on the basis of job-related criteria. Every effort will be made to hire new employees for positions which best utilize their abilities and in which they will be able to achieve both personal satisfaction and opportunity for growth. In no event shall a hiring of an employee be considered as creating a contractual relationship between the employee and the UUCSC; see “At Will Statement” section I. A., page 1, paragraph 4.

The UUA recommends and it is the preferred policy of the UUCSC to hire outside the congregation, unless there are extraordinary circumstances.

2. Recruitment and Hiring Process

Appropriate committees and relevant individuals will bear responsibility for the recruitment and hiring process, adhering to EEO standards; see section I. B.

Search Procedure

When a Search Committee is charged with hiring a new employee, the committee will consist of at least six members. The committee will include a member of the Personnel Committee, a member of the Board, the Minister, a member of the staff with a formal relationship to the new position, and any other UUCSC member with job-related expertise.

The Search Committee will hold an organizational meeting. A timeline for the hiring of the new employee will be determined, a help wanted ad will be written and advertised in area media such as one or more of the following: South County Independent, the Brown University non-profit website, Craig's List, Patch.

Application Requirements

A complete application is a cover letter and a resume.

Selection and Interview Procedure

Shortly after the application deadline, the committee will meet to review the applications. Each application will be read and ranked by the committee. Applicants with the highest rankings will be selected for a preliminary interview. (Interview Process/Questions form VII. p. 26). Of those, three will be chosen for a final interview with the Minister and two committee members. The three finalists will fill out the Employee Reference Inquiry forms (VII. p. 27) before the final interview. The finalists will be ranked and the position offered in order of the ranking. All new employees must complete Background Check Procedure (p. 28.)

Each unsuccessful applicant will receive a letter of regret (see sample letters: Section VII. pp. 30, 31) from the Search Committee Chairperson. The finalist will receive a letter from the Chair (Section VII. p. 33), and a phone call from the Minister. All applications received will be kept in the Personnel Filing Cabinet for three years before being shredded.

Hiring Procedure

The Minister will offer the position via phone and the Personnel Committee Chair will offer it in writing (Employment Offer Letter VII. p. 29) contingent upon an acceptable background check.

The contract will be written by the Personnel Committee and then signed by the President of the Congregation and the new employee. Orientation (Employee Orientation Procedure VII. p. 32) will include providing a copy of the relevant Committee/Staff Handbook, and a copy of the Personnel Policy Manual to the new employee, who will sign the ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT on page 22.

Please Note: New employees and employees who are transferred to another position are required to complete an initial review period of ninety days, which may be shortened or lengthened at the Employer's discretion. (Section I. M. p. 10)

Note: Alter forms and letters as necessary.

SEARCH PROCEDURE FORMS

Interview Process/Questions

Chair of committee welcomes the interviewee and introduces self and members of the committee. The Chair then reviews the job duties and employment particulars, e.g., part-time/full-time, 10-month position with option for renewal, and the background check requirement.

To determine the best-qualified person for the position, the search committee will have prepared direct questions concerning the applicant's resume as well as questions not addressed on the resume.

These direct questions will be followed by non-directed questions that the interviewee answers without further intervention from the committee member asking the questions. This will help the committee to assess the ability of the interviewee to organize his/her thoughts. Sample questions:

- a. Why did you apply for this position? Why part-time/full-time?
- b. Confidentiality is very important. How would you deflect a question that would involve confidentiality?
- c. Tell us about a challenging employment situation and how you handled it?
- d. What employment experiences have you had that would help you be a successful _____?
- e. Tell us about yourself; hobbies, talents or other things that are important in your life.
- f. A light bulb needs to be changed or the bathroom needs more toilet paper. These tasks are not in your job description. Would you be willing to do these tasks if they need to be done or would you call the Facilities Committee Chair?
- g. Do you have any questions about this position, or the UUCSC and its policies?

To close the interview, tell the applicant when he/she can expect to get feedback about the selection decision.
