UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION OF SOUTH COUNTY

BYLAWS

ARTICLE 1 – NAME

The name of this corporation shall be the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County (UUCSC) is a welcoming, loving spiritual community practicing Unitarian Universalist principles. We offer a safe, respectful environment for personal and spiritual growth for children and adults. The UUCSC serves as a resource for social and environmental action, peace, and justice.

ARTICLE 3 – DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

This Congregation shall be a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) and of the UUA New England Region.

ARTICLE 4 – MEMBERSHIP

A. Any person sixteen years or older who is in sympathy with the purposes of this Congregation and indicates the same by signing the Membership Book shall be a member of the Congregation. A new member shall attain the right to vote in business meetings and to hold office thirty days after signing the Membership Book. Membership may be terminated by a written statement of resignation signed by a member and given to either the Clerk or the President.

B. If a member has not contributed money or time to the Congregation for two years, and in the judgment of the Board has shown no interest in the activities of the Congregation, the Board shall direct the Clerk to ask the member in writing if the member wishes to continue as a member. If no affirmative response is received within thirty days, the Board may remove the member from membership. Members who will be away for an extended period of time and not pledging may be designated inactive by a written request delivered to the Clerk.

C. While no minimum monetary donation is required of a member, we encourage each member to support the Congregation financially. Friends of UUCSC are participating non-members who may attend services regularly, join committee work, contribute financially, and choose to be listed as a Friend in the UUCSC directory. Only members may vote, chair committees, or serve on the Board.

ARTICLE 5 – BUDGET

A. The fiscal year shall end June 30.

B. The Board shall prepare and recommend an annual budget for adoption by the membership at each annual business meeting.

C. The Board shall not increase total annual spending by more than ten percent of the approved budget, or decrease total annual spending by more than twenty percent of the approved budget without the approval of the membership at a Congregation business meeting.

ARTICLE 6 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A. Board Membership and Responsibilities

1. Congregation affairs shall be managed by the Board of Directors, herein referred to as the Board. The Board shall consist of the President, the Vice President, the Treasurer, and the Clerk, also known as the officers, and three directors. Only members of the Congregation who are eligible to vote may serve as members of the Board.
2. The Board shall:
 - a. Administer the business affairs of the Congregation.
 - b. Develop policy and carry out long-range planning.
3. Committees with temporary functions, including but not limited to search committees, shall be called ad hoc committees. The Board shall have the sole authority to establish and disband ad hoc committees and to appoint their chairs and members.
4. The Board shall have the authority to establish and disband official committees, subcommittees, or organizations of the Congregation. Groups of Congregation members who share common interests or objectives may request such official recognition.

B. Board Meetings

1. The Board shall meet once a month at a regular date and time designated by the Board. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President, or by written request of at least four members, on five days notice to the members of the Board

2. Annually, at its July meeting, the Board shall appoint three members. The members shall choose a chair.
3. The Board may ask the committee to convene if the parties involved in a conflict have been unable to resolve the conflict among themselves.

ARTICLE 8 – ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEES

A. Committees Responsibilities

1. Administrative committees shall be established or disbanded only by amendment of these bylaws. Administrative committees shall include:
 - a. The Finance Committee, which is responsible for financial planning.
 - b. The Facilities Committee, which is responsible for maintaining physical facilities.
 - c. The Communications Committee, which is responsible for coordinating communication within and outside the Congregation.
 - d. The Personnel Committee, which is responsible for recommending and implementing personnel policies, procedures, and practices and maintaining personnel records.
2. The Board may from time to time establish by resolution additional duties for each administrative committee.

B. Committee Chairs and Members

1. The Board shall appoint a chair for each administrative committee annually at the first regular Board meeting after the annual business meeting from among persons nominated by each committee. No person shall serve more than three consecutive full one-year terms as chair of the same committee. Only members of the Congregation who are eligible to vote may serve as committee chairs.
2. If a chair becomes vacant, the Board shall appoint another committee member to serve the remainder of the term.
3. Any member or Friend of the Congregation may be a member of any committee.
4. Members and Friends of the Congregation may attend committee meetings and may speak when recognized by the chair.

ARTICLE 9 – PROGRAM COMMITTEES

A. Purposes

Program committees plan and implement the social, civic, spiritual, and educational activities of the Congregation. The Membership Committee, the Music Committee, the Religious Education Committee, the Social Justice Committee, the Social Events Committee, and the Worship Committee are program committees. The Board shall establish the duties of each committee by resolution, and may establish or disband additional program committees by resolution.

B. Chairs and Members

1. The Board shall appoint a chair of each committee at the July Board meeting from among persons nominated by that committee. Only members of the Congregation who are eligible to vote may serve as chairs. No person shall serve more than three consecutive full one-year terms as chair of the same committee. If a chair becomes vacant, the Board shall appoint a person to serve the remainder of the term.
2. Any member or Friend of the Congregation may be a member of any committee.
3. Members and Friends of the Congregation may attend committee meetings and may speak when recognized by the chair.

ARTICLE 10 – COORDINATING COUNCIL

A. Purpose

The Coordinating Council is a forum intended to make it easier for all of the Congregation's committees, subcommittees and groups to communicate with each other and with the Board and to coordinate programs and activities.

B. Membership

The chair of every committee, subcommittee and group of the Congregation, except committees of the congregation, shall be a member of the Council. The chair of each committee, subcommittee and group may designate another member of the committee, subcommittee or group to attend a Council meeting.

C. Meetings

The Council shall meet in September, November, January, March and May. The President shall choose the chair of the Council.

D. Council Clusters

Every committee, subcommittee or group shall be a member of one of eight Council Clusters: Business and Finance; Spiritual Support; Lifespan Religious Education; Congregational and Leadership Development; Facilities; Communications; Community Relations and Events; and Ministry.

ARTICLE 11 – REMOVAL OF OFFICERS AND CHAIRS

The Board may remove an officer, a director, or a chair of an administrative or program committee from office if the officer or director has been absent from three consecutive Board meetings or the chair has been absent from three consecutive committee meetings and the Board determines that insufficient cause exists for the absence.

ARTICLE 12 – MINISTER

A. The minister shall be responsible for leading the Congregation in worship and for supervising the Congregation's spiritual interests and affairs. The minister shall have freedom to express personal opinions inside and outside the Congregation.

B. The minister shall be an ex-officio, non-voting member of the Board, of every committee, and of the Coordinating Council.

C. The minister shall be in charge of and supervise the day to day work of the Congregation's employees.

D. The minister shall be called upon the recommendation of a search committee by a majority vote of the Congregation. The minister shall be dismissed upon the recommendation of the Board by a majority vote of the Congregation. If the Minister is dismissed, the minister's salary and benefits shall continue for three months after the last day of employment.

ARTICLE 13 – MEETINGS

A. The Congregation shall conduct regular religious services at a time and place determined by the Board.

B. The annual business meeting of the Congregation shall be held on the second Sunday in June. The agenda shall include:

- Approval of the Minutes of the last annual business meeting
- Approval of the Treasurer's report
- Approval of the President's report
- Approval of an annual budget
- Report of the Nominating Committee
- Election of officers, directors, and a member of the Nominating Committee.

C. The Clerk shall ensure that the minutes of the last annual business meeting, the Treasurer's report, the President's report, the proposed annual budget, the Nominating Committee report, and a written report from the Minister and from each Program and Administrative committee are mailed, e-mailed, or hand-delivered to each member of the Congregation at least thirteen days before the annual business meeting.

D. A special business meeting of the Congregation may be called by the President, Vice President, a majority of the Board, or by twenty percent of the members of the Congregation. The purpose of a special business meeting shall be stated in a written notice mailed, e-mailed, or hand-delivered to membership at least thirteen days prior to the meeting, and only that business may be considered at the meeting.

E. One-quarter of the active membership of the Congregation shall constitute a quorum; provided, however, that forty percent of the active membership of the Congregation shall constitute a quorum at a meeting at which a vote will be taken on any of the following matters:

1. Purchase or sale of property valued at $10,000 or more.
2. Calling or dismissal of a minister.
3. Reduction of the salary of a minister.
4. Voluntary dissolution of the Congregation.

Motions shall be approved by a simple majority of members present, except as otherwise specifically provided in these bylaws.

F. Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, published by the Robert's Rules Association, shall govern the conduct of all business meetings.

ARTICLE 14 – AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be amended at any business meeting of the Congregation, provided that the proposed amendment is included in the notice of the meeting. An affirmative vote of sixty-seven percent of those members present shall be required to approve the amendment.

ARTICLE 15 – DISSOLUTION

Voluntary dissolution of the Congregation may be approved at any business meeting by an affirmative vote of sixty-seven percent of those members present. In the event of dissolution, all assets of the Congregation shall be transferred to the Unitarian Universalist Association for its general purposes. Dissolution and transfer of assets shall be in accordance with applicable law.

ARTICLE 16 – SEVERABILITY

Any provision of these bylaws found invalid shall not have the effect of invalidating other bylaw provisions.
