

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of South County

April 19, 2026

The first two rows of congregational seating are reserved for a hearing impaired zone

Sounding the Chime

Welcome

Katt Lockwood, Worship Associate

Hymn

Come Sing a Song With Me

Hymn # 346

Lyrics changed for National Library Day (below)

1. Come, hear a tale with me,
come hear a tale with me, come
hear a tale with me,
that I might know your mind
And I'll bring you books when they are hard to find, and I'll sing a song with you on the way
to the library.
2. Come learn a fact with me,
come learn a fact with me, come
learn a fact with me,
That I might know your mind
And I'll bring you books when they are hard to find, and I'll
sing a song with you on the way
to the library.
3. Come, hear a tale with me,
come hear a tale with me, come
hear a tale with me,
that I might know your mind
And I'll bring you books when they are hard to find, and I'll
sing a song with you on the way
to the library.
4. Come learn a fact with me,
come learn a fact with me, come
learn a fact with me,
That I might know your mind
And I'll bring you books when they are hard to find, and I'll
sing a song with you on the way
to the library.

Story for All Ages

Mary Fulton

A Love Letter to My Library, by Lisa Katzenberger

Mary worked as an elementary school library media specialist for 30 years

Chalice Lighting

Charlie Donnelly and David Fulton

Charlie worked for the Pawtucket School Department, and David worked as a public librarian in Liverpool, NY

Reciting the Covenant Together

Elizabeth Donovan and Friends

Elizabeth, former library staff at North Kingstown Public Library, with Linda Whyte Burrell, Charlie Donelley, David Fulton, Mary Fulton, Mary Frances Iocobbo, Lisa Richter and Susan Straub

*Love is the spirit of this congregation, and service is its prayer.
This is our great covenant: To dwell together in peace,
To seek the truth in love, And to help one another.*

Singing to the Children with Love

*Go with wisdom, go with wonder.
Go to meet a brand new day.
Learn to see the light within you as we send you on your way.*

Reading My Libraries, by Ursula K. Le Guin Susan Straub
Susan is Head of Technical Services at Otis Library in Norwich, CT.

Joys and Concerns

Memorial Leaf for Larry Kelland

Offering

Offertory

Sermon and Book Communion Find Your Library Joy
Linda Whyte Burrell, former library staffer at Langworthy Library in Hope Valley

Hymn Sing Now and Rejoice Hymn #395

Closing Words Free Libraries, by Toni Morrison

Extinguishing the Chalice Mary Frances Iocobbo
*We extinguish this chalice, but not its light.
That we take with us out into the world, sharing it with those we encounter on our journey.
Mary Frances is a former library staffer at the Providence
Atheneum*

Closing Song

Carry the flame of peace and love until we meet again. (3x)

Newcomers, please fill out a yellow welcome card, which you can find in the back of the gray hymnal, and put it in with the offering or give it to one of the greeters.

Rev. Denis Letourneau Paul, Minister

Ami Pienknagura, Music Director

Lee Cowan, Director of Faith Exploration

Sara Kaplow, Congregational Administrator; Amenata L. Botus, Congregational Bookkeeper

Rev. Denis's Office hours Tuesdays & Thursdays 10-4 Next furlough week: May 12 to May 17.

Plate Donations gratefully accepted via Square App using this QR code